INDICATIONS FOR EBCT:

- Quantitative coronary artery calcium scoring meets primary coverage criteria of effectiveness when performed to determine if there is too much calcium present to proceed with CT coronary angiography.

- The following indications do not meet member benefit primary coverage criteria that there be scientific evidence of effectiveness in improving health outcomes:
  - Screening, unless performed prior to CT coronary angiography to determine if there is too much calcium present to proceed with CT coronary angiography.